

TAVERN WILL OPEN FORMALLY SATURDAY

One Hundred Out-of-Town
Guests Will Be Present
That Night.

2 BANDS WILL PLAY
Program to Begin With Banquet in Charge of Towns-people's Committee.

The formal opening of the Daniel Boone Tavern, consisting of a banquet, speeches by Columbians and visiting hotel men and dancing in the ballroom, lobbies and main cafe will be held next Saturday evening immediately after the Kansas Aggie football game. One hundred out-of-town guests will attend the opening among whom will be hotel men from many of the state's leading hostels, Daniel Boone of Kansas City, a descendant of the famous old hunter for whom the new hotel is named, and numerous former Columbians and people throughout the state who are interested in the town.

The program will be opened with a banquet at which a committee of townspeople will be in charge, and talks will be made by the leaders in the work of starting the hotel project and the various visitors.

Two orchestras will play immediately after the banquet and inspection tour of the hotel. The hotel will be opened from basement to ballroom that all Columbians may see it as it is completed. Invitations to townspeople will be issued tomorrow.

Special decorations from Kansas City will arrive in Columbia on Tuesday and the decorators will be at work Thursday and Friday getting the hotel ready for the out of town visitors, the first of whom are expected to arrive on Friday.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"

Margaret Mayo's Celebrated Play at Hall Theatre October 8th and 9th. "Polly of the Circus," an elaborate screen presentation of Margaret Mayo's great drama of circus life, is the first of the beautiful productions to be released by the new Goldwyn Pictures Corporation. Mae Marsh is the star of this immense photo-spectacle. "Polly of the Circus" as a drama, was one of the greatest successes of the American stage. In films it takes its place as one of the most remarkable productions ever made. The picture is filled with realistic scenes of circus life. It required a fully equipped circus to produce this realism, and you are permitted to see a complete circus performance on the screen. The greatest race horse scene ever put on the screen is another of the thrilling incidents of this remarkable picture.

RESTRICTS GERMAN RESIDENTS

Activities of German Subjects Limited in China.

By Associated Press

PEKING, Oct. 6.—While China has not provided for the internment of Germans and Austrians, even those of military age, all citizens of the Central Powers are required to register and are forbidden to travel. They may engage in peaceful occupations with China's permission. The mildness of the regulations created some comment among foreigners, but Chinese officials replied to such criticism by saying they closed the German banks and are limiting the activities of Germans and Austrians even more than the United States or Japan.

DEPOSED RULER PLAYS WHIST

Cards the Chief Diversion of Former Czar, Now Idle.

By Associated Press

LONDON, Oct. 6.—According to a Petrograd dispatch, Nicholas Romanoff, the deposed Russian Emperor, passes a great deal of his time in playing whist, of which he is very fond. In pre-war times, whist was one of the most popular court diversions in Russia, and the Emperor had a special de luxe card which was made for his exclusive use. More than 1,200 packs of these Imperial cards were used every year, and they cost the Russian government about $7 a pack, being made of the finest linen rags with a watermark of the imperial crown and eagle.
